PEACE AND NEUTRALITY LEGISLATION

[Released to the press by the White House July 18]

Senator Barkley said:

"The consensus of opinion on the part of those members of the Senate present was that no action on neutrality legislation can be obtained in the Senate at the present session and that a majority of the Senate would concur in this view.

"Senator McNary expressed the same belief.
"They agreed that a majority of the Senate would consider neutrality legislation at the beginning of the next session."

[Released to the press by the White House July 18]

"The President and the Secretary of State maintained the definite position that failure by the Senate to take action now would weaken the leadership of the United States in exercising its potent influence in the cause of preserving peace among other nations in the event of a new crisis in Europe between now and next January."

THE UNITED STATES ANTARCTIC SERVICE

By letters dated July 7, 1939, the President requested the Secretaries of State, the Treasury, the Navy, and the Interior each to designate a representative to form an executive committee for the purpose of organizing, directing, and coordinating the conduct of an investigation and survey of the natural resources of the land and sea areas of the Antarctic regions for which there is provided an appropriation of $340,000 in the urgent deficiency and supplemental appropriation act approved June 30, 1939.

The President has designated the organization of the Government's activities in the Antarctic as The United States Antarctic Service.

Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, United States Navy, retired, was designated by the President to serve as commanding officer of the expedition which is being dispatched by The United States Antarctic Service and was also designated as an ex-officio member of the executive committee.

The following have been appointed by their respective Departments as members of the executive committee; Ernest Gruening, Director of the Division of Territories and Island Possessions of the Department of the Interior; Rear Admiral Russell R. Waesche, Commandant of the Coast Guard; Capt. Charles C. Hartigan, of the United States Navy; and Hugh S. Cumming, Jr., of the Department of State.

PRESENTATION OF LETTERS OF CREDENCE

Honduras

[Released to the press July 18]

Translation of remarks of the newly appointed Minister of Honduras, Dr. Don Julian R. Caceres, upon the occasion of the presentation of his letters of credence, July 18:

MR. PRESIDENT:

I have the honor to present to Your Excellency the letters of credence whereby General Don Tiburcio Carias A., Constitutional President of the Republic of Honduras, ac-credits me in the capacity of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Government before the one over which Your Excellency worthily and meritoriously presides. I present at the same time the letter of recall of my honorable predecessor.

The ties of good and cordial friendship which happily have existed and do exist between the people and the Government of the United States and the people and Government of Honduras are traditional.

His Excellency President Carias instructs me very particularly to preserve and strengthen still more, if possible, those ties of good and cordial friendship.

After my pleasing experiences in the diplomatic capacity in which it has befallen me to act during my stay in this enchanting city of Washington and from which I have been able to observe the exquisite courtesy and spirit of friendly aid which distinguish the eminent collaborators of Your Excellency's Government, emulating the cordiality and courtesy of Your Excellency, I do not have the slightest doubt that that noble objective, so pleasing and honorable for me, will be more easily attainable, particularly when I consider that the Government of my country seconds and accepts as an essential basis for the stability of peace and the normal growth of peoples the high and noble principles of continental solidarity and international cooperation proclaimed by Your Excellency.

The Government of Honduras, ever attentive to the maintenance and strengthening of its international relations and ever eager to lend its aid in the attainment of the progress of peoples and orderly international existence, thinks and believes, as does Your Excellency, that only the rules of right and justice can properly guide and direct the nations "with and within a world of neighbors."

The common holding of those ideals and the common interest in those of democracy, the institutions of which the Government of Honduras maintains and defends in its system, render more propitious between the United States and the people of my country that policy of positive rapprochement, mutual respect, and reciprocal cooperation which Your Excellency has outlined so brilliantly and which the Government of Honduras is following fully, feeling itself to be solidary with that of Your Excellency in the efforts to have, in the international community, right be the factor that controls and decides, as the sole means of stabilizing peace, safeguarding justice, and augmenting the spiritual and cultural patrimony of the nations.

That joint sharing of principles and also the geographical nearness of the two countries and their growing commercial and cultural interchange, make it clear, in the logical comprehension of their aspirations and interests, that the United States and Honduras are and ought to be "good neighbors," as their respective Governments are and ought to be good friends. No better support could be found for the performance of my duty, which has to do with drawing closer the relations of good and upright friendship existing between the two countries and Governments.

In conclusion, permit me to present to Your Excellency the cordial greeting of highest esteem which President General Carias sends to Your Excellency through me and to join in the fervent wishes which he expresses, interpreting the feeling of the people and the Government of Honduras, for the increasing prosperity of the people of the United States, the continuous success of its enlightened Government, and the personal happiness of its illustrious and renowned President.

President Roosevelt's reply to the remarks of Dr. Don Julian R. Caceres:

MR. MINISTER:

I am happy to accept from you the letters whereby His Excellency the President of Honduras accredits you as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Government to the Government of the United States of America.

I likewise receive from you the letters of recall of your distinguished predecessor, Señor Don Julio Lozano, who during his period of service in this country enjoyed such general esteem and made so many warm friends.

I note with pleasure and heartily reciprocate the expression of hope which you convey on behalf of His Excellency President Carias that the close ties of friendship which have come to be traditional between the peoples and Governments of Honduras and the United States may be still further strengthened. As you so aptly remark, the geographical nearness of our two countries, their expanding commercial relations, their mutually beneficial cultural interchange, and their common belief in those ideals of democracy which are the foundation of the institutions of government of this hemisphere render it the more natural that they should continue to be the good friends and neighbors they have happily been in the past.

In the furtherance of these common aims and in the development of new fields of economic, social, and cultural cooperation between Honduras and the United States, you may rest assured, Mr. Minister, that I, personally, and the officials of my Government will at all times be prepared to assist and encourage you in the discharge of your important mission. I have no doubt that the several years of experience you have had in this country both as a member of the staff of the Honduran Legation and as your Government's Chargé d'Affaires will stand you in good stead during your service as Minister; and I know that the respect and friendship you have won for yourself in official and private circles in the United States will be of great value in the years to come.

I am deeply grateful for the generous greeting which His Excellency President Carias has been good enough to send me through you. Please assure His Excellency that the good wishes of the Government and people of Honduras are heartily reciprocated by the Government and people of the United States and convey to him my own best wishes for the prosperity of Honduras and for his personal well-being and happiness.

Letter from the Secretary of State to Senator Key Pittman, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, with regard to Senate Joint Resolution 123, introduced by Senator Pittman:

July 21, 1939.

My DEAR SENATOR PITTMAN:

You have brought to my attention a motion adopted at a recent meeting of the Committee on Foreign Relations at the instance of Senator Johnson of California in connection with S. J. Res. 123. The motion reads as follows:

"That this matter be submitted to the Secretary of State for an opinion upon the Resolution presented by the Chairman, and the Resolution presented by the Senator from Washington if he desires an opinion upon his Resolution as well, and that he inform this Committee whether in his opinion we would violate any treaty in adopting or passing such Resolution."

In the light of the legislative situation relating to this and kindred proposals in regard to our foreign relations, it is reasonably apparent that there is a disposition in Congress to defer until the next session full and final consideration of proposed legislation on this general subject. Furthermore, as an early adjournment of Congress appears to be tacitly agreed upon, it seems clear that there may not be sufficient time in which to consider and enact legislation such as is proposed.

In these circumstances, I venture respectfully to inquire whether comment by the Department of State on the various proposals pertaining to this phase of our foreign relations could not be offered to a better advantage when Congress at its next session is ready to give full consideration to these and related proposals.

Sincerely yours,

CORDELL HULL

[Released to the press July 21]

Letter from the Secretary of State to Senator Key Pittman, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, with regard to Senate Resolution 166, introduced by Senator Vandenberg:

JULY 21, 1939.

MY DEAR SENATOR PITTMAN:

I am in receipt of your letter of July 20, 1939 requesting an expression of my views regarding S. Res. 166, introduced by Senator Vandenberg, stating that it is the sense of the Senate that the Government of the United States (1) should give Japan the six months' notice provided for in the treaty of 1911 for its termination and (2) should ask that the Conference of Brussels of 1937 be reassembled.

Notwithstanding the authority which is vested in the Executive in regard to the matters mentioned in the resolution, I am glad to say that the Executive is always pleased to have advice from the Senate and to give such advice full and careful consideration consonant with the great weight to which the opinions of the Senate are entitled. Such consideration will, therefore, be given to the opinion of the Senate as set forth in the resolution under reference, in the event of its passage.

Sincerely yours,

CORDELL HULL
